

Thank you for coming to an Oily Cart Sensory Tea Party!

Who are Oily Cart?

Oily Cart is a UK registered Charity (charity no. 1000799). Over 45 years they have pioneered Sensory Theatre, to reach audiences who are too often excluded from shared cultural experience. Their award-winning, interactive shows engage 1500 babies, toddlers and disabled children, and their families each year. Using all 33 senses, they create immersive wonderlands that never tell children how they should watch theatre, but learn from them what theatre should be. An Oily Cart show can happen in your local theatre, hydrotherapy pool or school hall; on a trampoline or online; at home or even up in the air!

Your support will help Oily Cart to:

- Develop and tour sensory shows for children who experience multiple and complex barriers to access.
- Support babies in their critical first 1001 days of development, creating life-long impact.
- Reach more families across the UK, who are otherwise excluded from shared cultural experiences.
- Share sensory resources with families across the UK.
- Champion the right of every child to experience the joy of theatre.
